

ABOUT US

This is where I started my journey into land management. This is the road that leads you to the North Rim of the Grand Canyon. I planted trees here 40 years ago, and went on to build Renewable Forestry Services, Inc.

Hello, I am Jill Ann Ellis. David and I married in June of 1999. I can shear a sheep, spin its wool, dye it and weave you a garment on the loom my father built me.

I can, but now we are focused on building the Carbon Cattle Company. Welcome!
